Scarborough Art Gallery

Scarborough Art Gallery 9

The striking image on the front of this leaflet is from a poster by Frank Newbould and shows Scarborough's North Bay. This poster and the original paintings selected for the Paint the Town project can be seen at Scarborough Art Gallery, which sits in The Crescent just off the town centre and offers a cultural oasis from the hustle and bustle of the town in a beautiful Regency setting.

The gallery spaces tell the story of the town and its various influences over the years through the wonderful paintings on display. You are invited to learn about the influence of the sea, explore Scarborough's early history as a holiday resort and discover how fashion spoke volumes about your status and position in society.

About Us

Scarborough & District Civic Society was founded in 1964. It is an entirely voluntary group of people concerned with preserving our unique heritage and encouraging best practice in the planning of new buildings and open spaces.

Visit our website at www.scarboroughcivicsociety.org.uk

Please help us to continue our work in helping to make Scarborough a better place in which to live, work and relax. As a charity, we rely on the membership fees and donations we receive to continue our work.

You will find a membership form attached to this leaflet, and you can return it to

SCARBOROUGH'S PAINT THE TOWN TRAIL

Scarborough & District Civic Society

Another project realized by the Civic Society

What's it all about?

Our 'Paint the Town' art project to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee has placed high quality reproductions of Scarborough's artistic heritage paintings at eight locations across the town. The purpose of the project is to share Scarborough's paintings as widely as possible and raise people's awareness of them and the beautiful locations they were painted in.
